Registering (for Team Captains)

Once you've got to the registration page, you will firstly need to select the event. Where it is highlighted, tick the event that applies to your year level, then you will be prompted to input a team name.

For your team name, it must begin with your school name, then you get a bit of freedom to input something cool to represent your team (e.g. Emmaus Eagles). If this is not adhered to, SACSA Sports will assign a team name for you.

After this, you will then invite your teammates to your team. This can be done via their start.gg gamer tag or their email address. Please note that you'll only have until the deadline to add or edit players within your team, after this time, only Tournament Administrators will be able to do this.
